

EMERGENCY IN BERLIN REFUSED

Forrestal To Be Buried With U. S. War Dead In Arlington

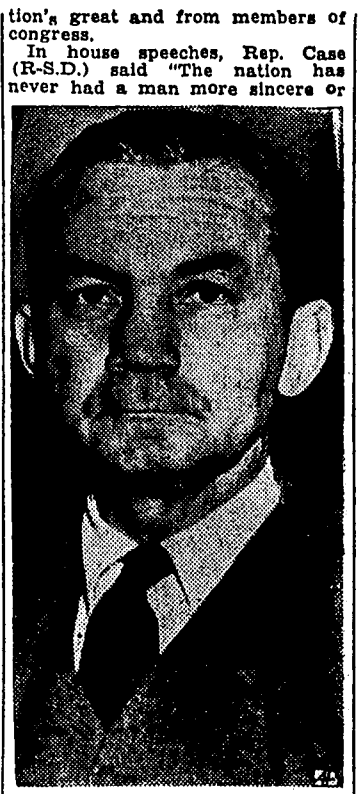

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—James V. Forrestal, who served from nine years of government service that he took his own life, will have a final resting place with the nation's war dead in Arlington National Cemetery.

The National military establishment announced today that burial will be with full military honors, and that the funeral tentatively has been set for 9 a. m. (CST) Wednesday.

The navy convened a board of inquiry to inquire into the death of the 57-year-old former cabinet officer from the 16th floor of the navy's headquarters in Washington, D. C., on May 22.

His friends already have written their own verdict: He died because he worked so hard for his country.

That was the note, too, of an outpouring of tributes from the nation's great and from members of congress.

In house speeches, Rep. Case (R-S.D.) said "The nation has never had a man more sincere or more devoted to duty." and Rep. Lodge (R-Conn.) called Forrestal "A shining example of selflessness and high faith."

Mr. Forrestal was subjected to a campaign of abuse and vilification the like of which I have never heard," Boggs said.

"This should give pause—real pause—to the irresponsible elements of the press and radio."

The military establishment said Forrestal's grave will be "within the vicinity" of that of Frank Knox, wartime secretary of the navy whom Forrestal succeeded.

15 Per Cent Cut In Marshall Plan Cost Is Proposed

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The house appropriations committee today ordered a 15 per cent cut in place of five per cent cut in Marshall plan spending for the year starting July 1.

Overriding a subcommittee recommendation, the full committee voted 22 to 19 to cut $629,780,000 from the $4,189,200,000 President Truman had asked for the European recovery program's second year of operations.

The subcommittee had recommended a cut of only $182,300,000, but Republicans claimed this wasn't enough.

The full committee also voted to cut $150,000,000 from the $1,000,000,000 President Truman sought for government and relief in occupied areas. The subcommittee had chopped this item only $50,400,000.

The full $400,000,000 asked for aid to Greece and Turkey was approved by the committee, as was a fund of $1,074,000,000 sought for Marshall plan operations for the April-June quarter of this year.

The overall amount recommended for all operations in Europe was $5,542,470,000. The president had asked $6,322,200,000.

The actual amount of money to be made available depends on what the full house and senate vote when the bill comes before them.

Rep. Cannon (D-Mo.), chairman of appropriations committee, told newsmen the motion for the 15 per cent cut was made by Rep. Albert Thomas (D-Tex.) and was supported almost solidly by Republicans.

The cuts the committee made are on top of a $187,800,000 reduction that Mr. Truman himself suggested because of the decline in prices since he sent his budget to congress in January.

The subcommittee—whose cuts were slashed deeper by the full committee—said it cut $600,000,000 because expected ratification of the international wheat agreement may cut the price of wheat financed by the economic cooperation administration.

The $422,300,000 because of price drops since the estimates were prepared, and $80,000,000 in anticipation of further price falls.

"We cut the wheat drops no more," the committee said, "because the ECA administration should ask congress to restore the cuts."

The committee said it made no cut in ECA funds because "a small appropriation would be disastrous" and "less than enough would be worse than nothing, as it would result in draining out own resources without compensating return."

The money is to be distributed as the ECA sees fit among 17 foreign nations participating in the so-called Marshall plan to restore European economy.

Vandenberg Wants Investigation Of Atomic Agency

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) called today for "a complete inquiry" into the attitude of the atomic energy commission, Chairman David E. Lillenthal on all security problems.

A congressional committee already is looking into the commission's operations and one investigator—Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa)—has demanded that Lillenthal resign.

The investigation has revolved about the award of atomic energy grants to an admitted Communist and to others who failed to receive security clearance for work on secret matters.

Vandenberg said in a statement that "it is unthinkable to me that Communists should be educated at public expense."

He added that he must withhold "final judgment" on Lillenthal's work as AEC head until the security issue is cleared up.

Health Measure Hearings Started By Senate Group

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Senate hearings on President Truman's health insurance program started today with an administration claim it is the only alternative to state medicine.

J. Donald Kingsley, acting federal security administrator, said the nation already is supporting a huge program of state medicine with an estimated 24,000,000 citizens receiving various kinds of federal medical care.

"I am firmly and honestly convinced," Kingsley told a senate labor subcommittee, "that nothing short of the social insurance method can prevent the further and eventually the complete substitution of state for private medicine."

The issue of how to go about providing medical and hospital care on a broader basis is one of the most controversial to come before congress in a long time.

There is hardly any chance the legislators will take any final action at this session. The calendar is too crowded.

Delay Of Action In Re-Armament Of Europe Seen

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—There was growing doubt today that the $1,130,000,000 arms-for-Europe program will be acted on during this session of congress.

Senate leaders are saying privately the re-arming of North Atlantic pact nations may have to wait until a special session of congress this fall—or until congress meets in regular session next January.

This is the talk for the moment: The Atlantic pact will be called up for ratification before the session ends. Secretary of State Acheson is reported to have asked senators to consider it as quickly as possible as a psychological boost for the American at the Big Four Paris conference.

But the leadership is a bit wary about bringing up the arms program while the pact nations with Republicans leading an economy drive to cut won on government spending.

Perjury Trial Of Alger Hiss Reset By Federal Judge

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—Federal Judge Samuel H. Kaufman today reset the perjury trial of Alger Hiss until May 31.

Counsel for the 44-year-old former state department official asked a postponement until Wednesday. The government did not object.

However, Judge Kaufman ignored the suggested date and ordered both sides to be ready to proceed May 31. Hiss was not in court.

The trial, on an indictment handed up by a spy-probing federal grand jury last Dec. 15, originally was scheduled to begin Feb. 24. Today's delay was the sixth postponement.

Peace Efforts In Ford Auto Strike Are At Standstill

DETROIT, May 23 (AP)—Attempts to end the 16-day Ford strike stood still today as both sides sat back and waited for the government to bring them together again.

Federal mediators said they were "confident" that a settlement could be reached soon following a 24-hour cooling-off period.

Negotiations ended abruptly shortly before midnight last night. They were at a deadlock since the 12 days of heated debate.

Both the UO United Auto Workers and the Ford Motor Co. accepted a mediator's proposal for the cooling off period.

The break-up followed the union's demand that Ford begin immediate negotiations on a new contract. This would have meant doubtless sessions with talks on the strike issue continuing.

The strike, which began May 8, was called over a union charge of a production "speed-up." Some 65,000 Ford workers in two Detroit plants walked out. Almost all of Ford's 108,000 production employees are now idle.

UAW President Walter Reuther threatened to call a strike last night if Ford would not agree to contract bargaining immediately. Ford said refused and negotiations were halted.

Proposed City Charter Change And School Separation Ballots Meaning Explained By City Attorney Jacobs

CITY ATTORNEY JAMES C. JACOBS, harassed from all sides by bewildered tax payers as to what the June 25 city charter change and school separation ballots mean, took pen in hand, so to put it, Monday.

Bedfordstead sat him down in front of a typewriter and on the half of the municipality he did his best to remove some of the mental chaos that has arisen since the city started mailing out informative ballots to qualified voters.

"Much doubt and confusion has arisen since notices of the election to be held on June 25 were mailed," Jacobs said. "I am being called upon to clarify certain questions by voters, spectators, reporters and even city officials. I am hopeful that this statement will answer most of the doubts that have arisen in the minds of the electorate."

As to "Amendment No. 1," I think there is no confusion as to what it means, or the effect it will have, if carried. Simply, it means that the city limits of Corsicana will automatically be extended so as to include adjacent areas. It will take in the area along West Second Avenue, as far as the State Orphans Home, since those residents ing on that street now use city water, sewerage and other facilities. It will annex all of Zlon's Real, which purchases water from the city lake. It will include smaller areas lying East and South of the city. Many of the residents of these areas want to be included in Greater Corsicana, and it is estimated that our population will be in excess of 22,000 if these areas are annexed. This amendment further gives to the commission the authority to annex additional territory without putting it to a vote of the people. That power was given to cities by the Constitution of Texas, and by the statutes of our state, but until this time, Corsicana has not by its charter accepted the power so as to accept and assume the power of annexation, and Corsicana is now simply falling in line with the majority of the cities in Texas.

Lots of "Why's."

"As to 'Amendment No. 2,' many questions have arisen. First and foremost, why was it submitted at all, and why must it be framed as to be confusing to the voters? It is being submitted because the school board insisted that taxes for the city be limited so that the com-

Various Portions Of Texas Struck By Summer Storms

Threat Of Flood, However, Vanishing In Trinidad Region

By The Associated Press

Early-summer storms hit scattered Texas areas last night and today, but the threat of a major flood was lifted from the Trinidad, Texas, area.

Both the weather bureau and army engineers said levees holding back swollen Trinity river waters would hold at Trinidad.

Late last week a major flood had been predicted for Trinidad, where Henderson Levee District No. 3, protects 17,000 acres in Henderson and Anderson counties.

This morning the stage at Trinidad was 41.1. A crest of about 42 feet was predicted for tonight or tomorrow morning.

It was presumed the destructive break late last week upstream at Rosser had eased the pressure on the Trinity. Generally clear weather in the watershed over the week end—last night's rain being too late to effect the situation at Trinidad—also were credited with easing the situation.

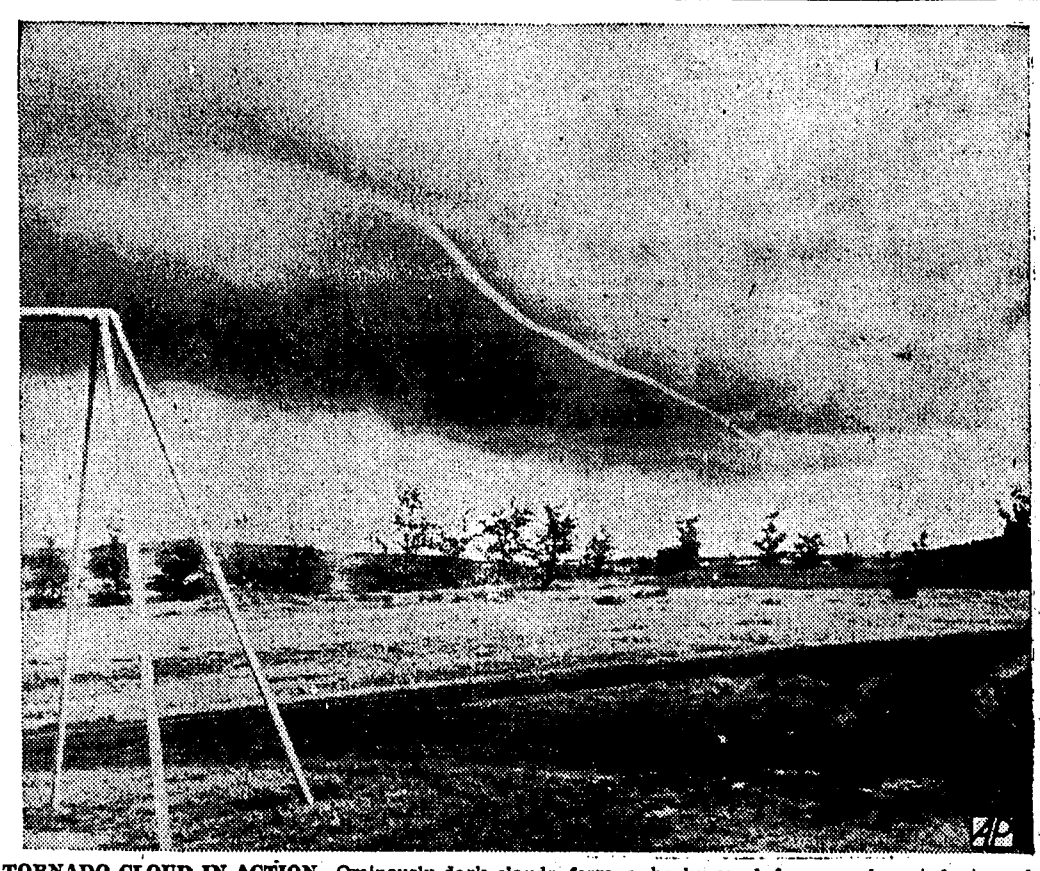

No Trouble Expected.

A. M. Hamrick, meteorologist at the Dallas U. S. weather bureau, said:

"The big flood of April, 1942, the stage at Trinidad got as high as 49.8 before the levees gave way. There shouldn't be any trouble this time from a 42-foot stage unless there's been a decided weakening of the levees."

Nevertheless, men were patrolling the levees and landowners kept a watchful eye on the rolling

High Winds, Some Hail, But Little Rain In County

Navarro county missed a much-needed rain Sunday night and early Monday morning as it was lashed by high winds, some hail and an unusual electrical display and disturbance.

The government weather observatory reported only .03 inch precipitation, although some of the northern and western communities received showers. Richland failed to get any rain.

Reports by communities:

Elmhurst—Electrical storm, high winds, a little hail, good showers—water standing in some fields.

Blooming Grove—Wind, some lightning, some rain, no damage.

Rice—Shower, some hail, no damage.

Richland—Some wind, no rain.

Frost—Little rain, wind, lightning, no damage.

Dawson—Big cloud, wind, sprinkle of rain.

Roanoke—Wind, good shower.

Kerens—Shower and wind.

A number of trees were broken here and several signs were flattened on Highway 75 in the southern part of the city.

Battle For Shanghai Under Way As Reds Try To Crack City's Defenses

By FRED THOMPSON

SHANGHAI, May 23 (AP)—Communist troops tried all day to crack Shanghai's defenses. But at nightfall they had not achieved a breakthrough.

Some progress was made in spots. In others they failed.

The mid-day garrison communiqué described the fighting as a "searing climax." From the Associated Press office just off the Shanghai Bund we had only to look out of the window to confirm the communiqué.

The center of the fighting was directly across the Whangpoo from the heart of Shanghai. Fighting ranged less than two miles away. It started about 10 a. m. and was roaring on into the night.

Shell bursts set no less than 40 fires during the day.

Government P-51s and mosquito bombers alternated in bombing and strafing. Sometimes the Reds answered with ground machineguns. They were not effective. Artillery and mortars rumbled at intervals of 10 to 20 minutes.

Unification Bill Gets Backing Of Senate Leaders

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) today threw the weight of the senate leadership behind a bill designed to tighten up unification on the army, navy and air forces. One goal is a cut in the multi-billion dollar costs of peacetime defense efforts.

"I'm for it and the senate should be able to pass it today or tomorrow," the Democratic leader said.

"It certainly should have the support of all these fellows who have been yelling for economy."

Lucas said he expects no serious opposition to the defense legislation, which would clarify and expand powers of the secretary of defense. It calls for "fiscal and budgetary reforms" with savings estimated by Tydings at from $200,000,000 to $600,000,000 a year.

But even if the senate gives quick approval, house action appears uncertain.

Foreign Ministers Add Austria To Their Agenda As They Open Meeting In Paris On Question Of Germany

PARIS, May 23 (AP)—The Big Four Council of Foreign Ministers met today in an attempt to solve the problems of Germany and decided swiftly to add the Austrian question to their agenda.

The four ministers agreed on a four-point agenda:

1. Problems of German unity, including economic and political principles and allied (four-power) control.
2. Berlin, including currency questions.
3. Preparation of a peace treaty for Germany.
4. Preparation of an Austrian independence treaty.

The Austrian question has been deadlocked over many a long meeting of the foreign ministers' deputies, and Austria has begged the council to take it up at this session. Like Germany, Austria is occupied by the Four Powers' forces.

The first meeting of the current session lasted until 8:30 p. m. (11:30 a. m. CST) or about two and a half hours.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson of the United States, Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin of Britain, Foreign Minister Robert Schuman of France and Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky of Russia assembled in the flag-festooned pink marble palace at three minutes before 4 p. m. (8:57 a. m. CST).

This was the sixth meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers since the war and the fourth on the German question. It was their first session since the council was deadlocked in London in December, 1947, on a German peace treaty.

The three Western powers were expected to press Russia for immediate and urgent consideration of Berlin. The lifting of the Soviet blockade of Berlin and the allied counter-blockade of Soviet-occupied Eastern Germany opened the way for these new talks.

American and French conference sources forecast that the Western ministers would seek to lift the Berlin situation as the first problem for discussion.

They said the West would argue that continued division of the capital is a menace to any future settlement for Germany as a whole.

One source pointed out that the problem of two currencies in the city—basis of a Berlin railway workers' strike that broke into

West Refuses To Take Over Rail Stations In City

Strikers Against Russia Clamoring For Intervention

LATE BULLETIN

BERLIN, May 23 (AP)—One person was reported killed to-night when wild rioting between striking railway workers and Communist strike breakers flared again at the Am Zoo Elevated station in West Berlin.

Berlin police confirmed one death and said others may have been injured by shots fired by Soviet sectors German railway police.

West Berlin police said shooting began when a mob of about 3,000 persons tried to storm the main gate of the station, located across the street from the Berlin Zoo.

They said the crowd marched down a main thoroughfare and tried to smash through the barricaded gate.

BERLIN, May 23 (AP)—The three western military commanders rejected today a petition from the west Berlin city government to seize strike-bound elevated railway stations in the city.

The strike against the Soviet-appointed management of the railways, now in its third day, was marked by a weekend of bloody rioting in which Soviet-controlled police used guns against mobs of strikers and their sympathizers.

The decision of the military commanders of the United States, Britain and France in effect reaffirmed the property rights of the Russian-controlled railway system. The rights were established in 1945 by four-power agreement.

The anti-Communist city government had asked western authorities to let it have the right to send their own police into railway installations and stations in western sectors, with the backing of American, British and French authorities.

At times the planes and big guns seemed to be covering a withdrawal. At other times they seemed to be supporting an attack. All I can say is that mortar artillery shell bursts and the new fires at 5 p. m. looked to be half a mile further from the river than they were at noon.

Covered Wagon Scheduled Here For Bond Drive

The famous Covered Wagon of the 40ers, symbolizing the "Opportunity Drive," sponsored by the Treasury Department for the sale of U. S. Series E Savings Bonds, will be placed on display in front of the Palace Theatre here Thursday, Joe E. Butler, county chairman, announced Monday. The appearance of the Covered Wagon in Corsicana is being sponsored by the Interstate Theatres.

David Yates, manager of the Palace Theatre, has announced that two complimentary show tickets will be awarded each purchaser of a bond or bonds Thursday.

The wagon arrives in Corsicana Wednesday night between 7 and 9 p. m. from Tyler and will spend all day and night Thursday in Corsicana, leaving this city Friday morning, May 27, for Houston.

Chairman Butler stated Monday that the wagon would parade about Corsicana Thursday in the interest of the bond campaign.

The bonds are not war bonds, Butler stressed, and added that they are savings bonds for the encouragement of saving and thrift.

Many of the pioneer families who settled in Navarro county 100 years ago made the trip bond. Other states here in covered wagons similar to the ones being used in this campaign as the contribution of the motion picture industry.

Harry S. Phillips, Waco, and Gordon Brown, Dallas, deputy directors, U. S. Savings Bonds division, Treasury Department, conferred with Chairman Butler here Monday relative to the Navarro county campaign.

Self Treatment Is Uncertain

By W. F. BROWN
Of Johnson's Pharmacy

Treating yourself for any ailment will at best produce uncertain results. You may relieve temporarily an acute or chronic illness which should really have the doctor's care . . . by such delay in seeking the doctor's advice you prolong the illness . . . let it become serious.

Effective treatment of an illness begins when the cause is located . . . a task only the doctor is qualified to complete.

The doctor has a wide choice of pharmacy products from which he can prescribe for your illness. And drugs and biologicals properly stored and refrigerated are always available at the drug store with a reputation for excellent prescription compounding.

FORRESTAL

Mrs. Forrestal has requested that the funeral be kept simple, it was learned.

It has not yet been decided where the funeral services will be held.

Forrestal left as his farewell only an ancient Greek poem of despair and death.

He was the first secretary of defense—a sick man in March. Before that, he had been secretary of the mightiest navy the world has ever seen, and before that he had served as an assistant to Roosevelt.

This spring, his health broken by more than nine years of nerve-racking service, he decided to seek release from the strain. He spent a few days in Florida after his resignation, and then he entered the hospital April 2.

His death and the manner of it shocked the capital.

President Truman said "This able and devoted public servant was as truly a casualty of the war as if he had died on the firing line." He issued a proclamation ordering that flags fly at half staff.

So far as was known, the former secretary left no note.

But on a radiator, near his hospital bed, was found a book "An anthology of world poetry." A red ribbon lay between the pages opened to Sophocles' "Chorus from Ajax."

That poem tells of profound and hopeless tragedy.

Copies Poetry
In the back of the book was a piece of hospital memorandum paper in which Forrestal had copied, in a firm hand, the first 26 lines of the doleful poem.

The 26 lines contained such as these:

"Worn by the waste of time,
"Comfortless, nameless, hopeless—
"In the dark prospect of the yawning grave."

Further on, in the uncopied part of the poem, occurred lines telling of one who:

"Wanders as now, in darkness and disgrace
"When reason's day
"Is quenched in cold decay,
"Better to die, and sleep
"The never waking sleep,
"Than linger on
"And dare to live
"When the soul's life is gone."

From statements of officials at the hospital, this story was reconstructed:

In the weeks that followed Forrestal's entry for treatment, he seemed to be on the road to complete recovery. He received visitors, among them President Truman, made phone calls, read the paper.

Refuses Sedative
But when the patient's bedtime came yesterday night he declined to take the usual sedative. Choosing a time when attendants were elsewhere on his 16th floor, Forrestal left his room (carefully avoiding going through another room of his suite in which a doctor was located), walked diagonally across a corridor to a diet kitchen. There the window, unlike that of his own room, had no tightly secured wire screen.

A nurse on the seventh floor heard the thud of his body as it struck an offset of the building above the third floor. He was dead. When attendants rushed to the spot, his bathrobe belt cord was twisted tightly around his neck.

Admiral Willcutts told reporters: "That type of suicide is impossible to prevent. You can't take a man of that brilliance and put a guard over him all the time. There were fewer and fewer restrictions as his condition improved."

Plans for the funeral—including whether there will be a military burial for the World War I veteran and former cabinet member—were left to Mrs. Forrestal.

She flew in from Paris today aboard the Presidential plane, the Independence, with her son Michael, an employee of the Economic Cooperation administration in Paris. In the belief that her husband was recovering satisfactorily, she had gone to France to find a place for him to convalesce.

Texas Lawmaker To Present Bill For Rural Roads

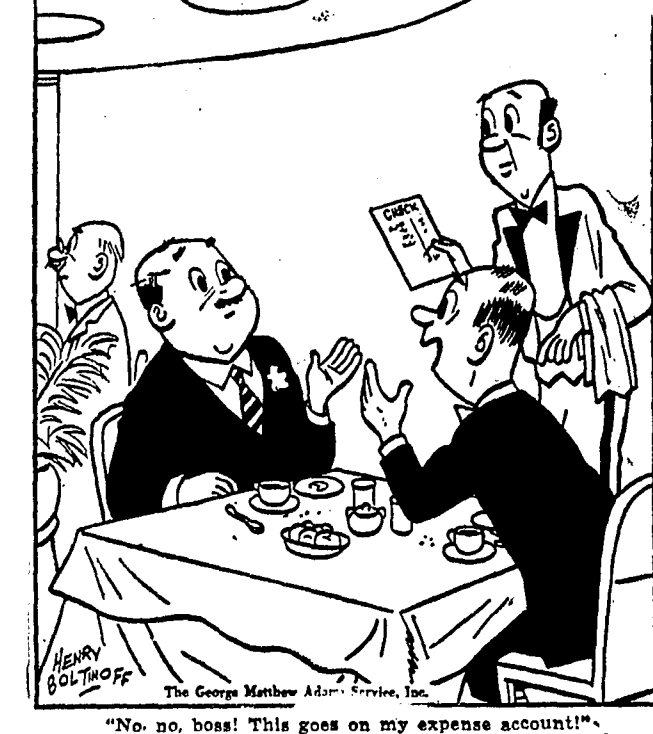

WASHINGTON, May 23.—(P)—Rep. Pickett (D-Tx) expects to introduce today a bill authorizing a $150,000,000-a-year federal aid program for country roads. Pickett said yesterday the bill would propose a two-year program, under which the federal money would be spent for such rural roads as the counties and states agree shall be built. He said the money would be distributed under the regular federal aid formula, which would mean that his own state would get about $10,000,000. Other pending rural road bills would distribute the money direct to counties, or it would go to the state under the Pickett bill.
